

The David & Joyce Milne Public Library

Spring Programs 2022

For any programming updates, or for more information, please visit milnelibrary.org/events or contact Kira at 413-458-5369, or at kbingemann@cwmars.org

All of April

Poet-tree Month

Celebrate Poetry Month with us. Pick up a photo and write a poem based on it to add to our Poet-tree. You could win a prize!

Saturday, April 23

10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Family Art Drop In: Cardboard Creations!

What world will you create with cardboard pieces and shapes? Kids and their families are welcome to drop in and create!

Saturday, April 30, May 14, May 28 and June 11

1:00 p.m.

Outdoor workshop: Tap for Joy!

Learn how to tap dance, joy guaranteed! With Jenny Herzog

Saturday, May 7

10:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

In-Person drop-in workshops, ages 8 to adult: Glass Art Day!

Featuring two workshops: Suncatchers & Cabochon Key Chains, or Pendants

Tuesday, May 10th

7:00 p.m.

Virtual talk: Finding Sanctuary: Exploring Mass Audubon sites

With Barry VanDusen, author of Finding Sanctuary

Join in here: <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/82418290023>

Saturday, May 14

11:00 a.m.

*In-person presentation, for all ages: Raptor Conservation, with Live Birds of Prey!

with Tom Ricardi of Massachusetts Birds of Prey Rehabilitation

Saturday, May 21

10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

In-person workshop, for high school juniors and seniors:

College Essay Writing "Boot Camp"

Get a head start on your college admissions essay, with Pat Wilk, English teacher and college essay counselor.

Sign-up required: go to milnelibrary.org/events

Wednesday, May 25th

4:00 - 7:00 p.m.

*In-person workshop, for teens and adults: Dyeing to Wear It

Dye your own silk scarf with Rhonda Fazio, artist and owner of Dyer Maker Studio

Sign-up required: go to milnelibrary.org/events

Saturday, June 11th

12:00 p.m.

*In-person presentation: Berkshire Cottages

Learn about the homes that were built in the Gilded Age in the Berkshires, with Carole Owens

Programs generously funded by the Friends of the Milne Public Library

